Glory, Valor & Sacrifice: Michigan Sites Significant to the Civil War is the comprehensive Michigan history travel guide you've been waiting for!

From Monroe to Copper Harbor, this guide features over 200 sites such as historic homes, monuments, markers, museum exhibits, cemeteries and forts related to Michigan and the Civil War. It also identifies numerous sites of interest pertaining to abolition and Michigan's role in the Underground Railroad.

“I had no idea there was so much public art out there, and/or that it could be presented in such a ‘mixed media’ sort of way: houses, monuments, cemeteries, etc.” David Nawrocki, Wayne State University adjunct faculty, author, art critic

“Published during the sesquicentennial of the Civil War, this book provides a wealth of fascinating information that will be enthusiastically welcomed by everyone that possesses an interest in the history of the Wolverine State.” David Finney, Michigan Civil War historian, educator and author

- Foreword written by Jack Dempsey, author of Michigan and the Civil War: A Great and Bloody Sacrifice
- $1 from every book sale donated to the Michigan Civil War Sesquicentennial Committee
